Mark Arts Adds Student Competition to Versus: A Live Art Battle

WICHITA, Kan. – Mark Arts will host its second interactive painting competition and fundraiser on September 23. Versus: A Live Art Battle will be presented by Bank of America and Koch Industries.

The live painting competition will feature 12 professional and emerging artists in an artistic smackdown, creating art in 20 minutes. Guests will vote for their favorite artist and the final round will feature the top two artists vying to become the champion. The winner will receive a solo exhibition at Mark Arts, and all artists will receive commissions on sales of their earlier work that is on display. The paintings created live will be auctioned off for the benefit of Mark Arts.

“The creation of art from start to finish is exhilarating to watch as the shapes and design take hold,” says Polly Gentry, special events chair and board trustee. “Watching them mix the perfect color to swipe across the canvas, seeing the intent on their faces as they step back from their canvas and contemplate their next stroke, and putting the finishing touches on as they complete their masterpiece — every minute of it is inspiring!”

New this year will be a battle of high school students, to take place 9 - 11 a.m. on September 23. Each participating student from 10 area schools will receive a $100 cash scholarship, with the winner taking home $500 and the runner-up $300.
