

Beginning/Intermediate Jewelry and Metalsmithing

Instructor: Lori Martin-Price

Course Objectives: To achieve a basic understanding of the processes involved in designing and creating jewelry. To learn to proper use and safety practices involved in the specialized tools and equipment in the jewelry/Metal's studio. To design and create finished jewelry pieces.

Course Description: Beginning/Intermediate jewelry and metalsmithing is an introductory course as well as a continuation of the skills learned from attending this class for the fist time.

Supply List:

Week 1: Basic band ring

Week 2: Stone(s) purchased from Lapidary Artists or bought in by students, will begin design for a basic cabochon stone setting.

Week 3: Continuation of basic cabochon stone setting

Week 4: Copper Fold-Form project, working with creating texture on metal

Week 5: Second larger or odd-shaped cabochon stone setting, also matched pair design, or adding linkage to design is an option.

Week 6-9: Continuation

Week 10: Final touches of project.